

Please let New Jersey's Do-Not-Call statute stand as written. New Jerseyans are targeted by telemarketers more heavily than residents of other states because of higher per capita income. We NEED the stringent guidelines that currently exist.